7. Statements
8. Motion

THAT, this house debates and approves the report of the committee on environment, water and natural resources on the site visit to consider implementation status of water projects done during the financial year 2021/2022.

9. Motion- County enforcement officers (county Askaris)

(Hon. Lemantaan Kevin)

AWARE that, there are town county enforcement officers (county Askaris) in Maralal Municipal town who aid in enforcement of revenue collection and adherence of county laws

FURTHER AWARE that, the county askaris are vital in enforcement of revenue collection, ensuring of adherence of health standards through responsible garbage disposal and enforcement of general county laws.

NOTING that it's only in Maralal municipality that there are county askaris even though there are other big towns in need of this service within Samburu County such as Baragoi town, Wamba town, suguta town, kisima town, loosuk town and Archers Post town with considerable population

OBSERVING that, members of the public in these towns need a safe business environment to work in so as to ensure a welcoming and friendly atmosphere to conduct business for both the business people and their customers.

FURTHER AWARE that; the business environment will positively impact on our general local source revenue collected through increased business working hours as a result of safe environment created through the employment of the town askaris.

THEREFORE This ASSEMBLY RESOLVES that the County Government of Samburu through the department of Lands, Physical Planning, Housing and Urban Centers to provide for County askaris to Baragoi, Wamba and Archers post and any other upcoming towns.
